

Parent Expectations

Dead Frog Volleyball believes parents, relatives and friends play a vital role in the development of our young athletes as well as upholding the reputation for excellence of Dead Frog Volleyball. We understand that emotions can get the best of us during the heat of competition when our children are involved. With this in mind, Dead Frog requires that family and friends of our athletes maintain the highest level of respect, sportsmanship and civility.

We ask parents to remember that coaches have a responsibility to do what is best, not only for an individual athlete, but for the team and Dead Frog Volleyball as well. Decisions made in the best interest of the team can often seem unfair to individuals. Unfortunately, that is the nature of team sports and we ask parents to respect these difficult decisions.

Dead Frog Parents' Code of Conduct

- Model sportsmanship by being supportive of your child, the team, the coach and the program
- Be a fan of everyone on the team by encouraging hard work and effort that will help lead to improved performance.
- Be in control of your emotions
- Respect other fans and coaches
- Respect the integrity of the officials
- Keep negative thoughts to yourself
- Allow coaches to do their job, do not coach your child during matches and practices
- Coaches alone decide on playing time and strategy
- Remain in the spectator area during all games
- Attend all matches, drug and alcohol free
- Honor financial commitments

I hereby pledge to support, care and encourage my child and her teammates participating in Dead Frog Volleyball by adhering to the rules of the above stated Parent Code of Conduct. I understand that any violation of this agreement may result in disciplinary action.
